The Kalna Raskumi guest house is located in a picturesque area of Vecpiebalga, on the shore of Lake Alauksts, where a charming landscape unfolds. Surrounding the guest house are not only the lake, but also vast forests and meadows, ideal for walking, mushroom picking and berry picking, as well as for peaceful or active recreation in nature. The lake offers opportunities for fishing or spending time actively on the water, for example, by paddleboarding or taking a boat ride at sunset. This place is a true oasis where you can forget the bustle of the city and enjoy the beauty of nature from every angle. Read more HERE

Līgatne's Bee Sauna House is a true wellness retreat in the heart of the town, offering two exclusive relaxation experiences: deep personal rejuvenation and engaging team adventures. Let the warmth of the sauna, the scent of fresh hay and homemade bread, and the peaceful countryside help you slow down and reconnect with yourself. Guided by experienced sauna masters, you'll enjoy authentic sauna rituals, revitalising hot and cold contrast therapy, and deep relaxation in nature. Complete your experience with a soothing massage, unwind on a fragrant hay bed, and, during the warmer months, stay overnight to embrace the tranquillity of the Latvian countryside. Whether you travel alone, as a couple or with friends, this is a place where body and mind find balance, and every visit leaves you feeling renewed. Read more HERE
